THE OCCUPATION IN 30 SECONDS

What a warehouse logistics specialist does

They check goods on arrival, store them correctly, pick orders and organise dispatches, using handling equipment and stock management software.

Receive

Check the quantity and condition of goods against the documents, then organise unloading.

Store and pick

Put items away according to storage rules, count stock and pick customer orders.

Dispatch

Pack and label shipments, draw up a loading plan and plan delivery rounds.

This occupation is for you if…

- ✓ you like order and organisation in your daily work
- ✓ you are comfortable with computers and stock software
- ✓ you accept physical work on your feet and on the move
- ✓ you take safety instructions seriously

Less suitable if…

- – you cannot cope with regularly carrying loads
- – you do not want to work in a warehouse or outdoors
- – you dislike repetitive tasks and tight deadlines

A TYPICAL DAY IN THE WORKSHOP

07:00 Start of shift and briefing : The supervisor lists the expected deliveries and recalls the safety rules.

07:30 Receiving a delivery : Checking quantities and the condition of parcels against the delivery note.

09:30 Storing items : Each item is put in its place according to its nature, weight and volume.

11:00 Picking orders : Items are gathered, packed and labelled ready for dispatch.

13:30 Loading shipments : Drawing up the loading plan, then loading the lorry with a forklift truck.

15:30 Stock count and data entry : Checking stock levels and recording the movements in the software.

THE TRAINING

How the Ausbildung works

In Germany you learn by working: this is the “dual system”. You are an employee of a company and a student at a vocational school (Berufsschule) at the same time.

3 to 4 days a week at the company | 1–2 days school

Year 1

Receiving and storage

- Safety and work organisation
- Receiving goods
- Storage basics

Year 2

Picking and dispatch

- Storage and quality management
- Picking and packing
- Intermediate exam

Year 3

Planning

- Planning logistics processes
- Loading plans and delivery rounds
- Final exam

Exams and qualification

An intermediate exam (Zwischenprüfung) in the middle of the 2nd year, with a practical task and a written paper. The final exam includes practical work of up to 5 hours and three written papers. You obtain the Abschlusszeugnis of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry (IHK).

YOU ARE PAID DURING THE TRAINING

What you need to apply

- ✓ Baccalaureate level is required.
- ✓ The required level is B2. Good technical vocabulary for the trade is a real plus.
- ✓ The work is physically light to moderately heavy, on your feet and on the move, with bending or kneeling postures. Good eyesight, good hearing and a sound back are needed.

Documents to prepare

- ✓ CV and cover letter in German
- ✓ Translated baccalaureate diplomas and transcripts
- ✓ German B2 level certificate
